

Incidental Spill Training Module Test

Name

Email

Department

Date

1. Identify some of the required components of a Spill Kit (check all that apply):

Nitrile or latex gloves

Absorbent sock and material (pads or granular medium)

Trash bags

Hazardous waste labels

2. True or False: The first step in responding to an incidental spill is to communicate the hazard

True

False

3. True or False: Equipment in spill kits can vary, since spill kits can be configured for specific purposes

True

False

4. The first priority for use of an absorbent sock is:

to protect drains

to prevent material from spreading to protect your spill kit

to channel rainfall outdoors

5. True or False: If you determine that a spill is too dangerous or large for an incidental response you should call 911.

True

False